INAUGURAL BCSRA REFEREE EDUCATION AWARD TO BE PRESENTED

At a Council has agreed to create a BCSRA Referee Education Award with the first recipient being BCSRA member John Nielsen. The award will be made at the Annual General Meeting, to be held in Vancouver in Spring 2006 , will be bestowed to an individual who provides an outstanding contribution in developing referee education material or programs. A committee will be formed to firm up selection procedures and criteria for future presentations.

CLASS 4 ONLINE MEMBERSHIP TO INCREASE BY $5; CLASS 4's PAYING CASH/CHEQUE TO STAY AT $10.

Due to the miniscule net funds available for operations after transaction costs are factored in (approximately $5), those Class 4 members paying online will be required to cover the online transaction charge effective April 1, 2006. Class 4 members may still renew/join for the current $10 amount by paying submitting a form with a cheque or money order for $10. Cash memberships are also accepted in person to the Treasurer.

LEN BRIDGEMAN NEWEST LONG & MERITORIOUS SERVICE AWARD RECIPIENT

At the November 19th Fall Council Meeting of the association, Council voted in Len Bridgeman as the latest recipient of the BCSRA's Long and Meritorious Service Award. The award, bestowed upon those members who have given a great contribution to refereeing and service to referees for a minimum of 25 years, will be presented at the Referee Association's Annual General Meeting, to be held in Vancouver in Spring 2006.

Dear Members of the Referees Association,

I would like to wish you all the very best of the Christmas season and hopeful wishes for a prosperous New Year, the year of World Cup 2006. Despite all the trials and tribulations over the past year, and it was pretty scary at times, if you're like me you're looking ahead to next year's spectacle. I'm waiting with clenched teeth for the opening whistle of the first game of this event.

Why is the World Cup so important? Because this one event is used by the entire soccer world to gauge the state of the game. For us as referees, it's important that we watch the games of the 18th World Cup because there will be incidents that happen which will not only be talked about for years to come, but which local players may try to emulate on our local parks! (con't. next column)

We always have to stay one step ahead of them. Staying one step ahead of them means we all have to pitch in and work together. To expect one or two people to bring about action while everyone sits around on the sideline and watches won't work- it's a team effort. Let's make it a New Year's resolution to offer our help to our local Area Association executives (in the case of Direct members please contact the provincial executive) to work together as a team, to unite as many referees so they can be informed of the state of the game, and in turn to create a bond that makes them feel good about being areferee Merry Christmas, if it's not too late.
Elvio Chies, President
